

SIXTIETH CONGRESS IS FOR ROOSEVELT

Republicans Will Have Elected Two Hundred and Sixty Three

DEMOCRATS HAVE ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-THREE —MISSOURI HAS MADE THE MOST PRONOUNCED CHANGE—RETURNS FROM MANY STATES INDI- CATE STRONG REPUBLICAN SENTIMENT IS NOT ON THE WANE.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Returns up to 1 o'clock this morning show that the Republicans have elected 223 congressmen and the Democrats 163, as follows:

States	Rep.	Dem.
Alabama	9	1

Totals	223	163

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Illinois went Republican by over 100,000, the plurality for Smulski, state treasurer, footing about 120,000 with a few districts missing. Complete returns of Chicago on state treasurer give Smulski, Republican, 123,756; Pabroski, Democrat, 72,336.

The Republicans lost two congressional districts apparently in Chicago and two more down state, making a gain of four for the Democrats and giving them five instead of one in the Illinois congressional delegation. These successful Democrats were J. T. McDermott, who beat Charles Wharton in the Fourth district; A. J. Sabath, who won out against Anthony Michalek in the fifth; B. F. Caldwell, who beat Zeno J. Rivas in the twenty-first; and M. D. Foster, who defeated P. J. Eichen in the twenty-third. Henry T. Rainey, Democrat, was elected in the twentieth district.

All the defeated Republicans are in the present congress, having been re-nominated. The legislature is undoubtedly Republican by a good majority on joint ballot. This insures the return to the senate of Senator S. M. Cullom, who received the majority of the votes at the Republican primaries.

KANSAS.
TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 7.—At midnight, the election of Governor Hoch, Republican, seems reasonably certain, although the Democratic committee still claims the state for William A. Harris, by a plurality of 3200.

According to figures of the Republican committee, ninety-seven counties out of 105 give Hoch a plurality of 4150. The Democrats claim that their figures on the same counties give Harris a plurality of nearly 2000 and that the official returns will give him over 3000. The eight counties still missing are in the western part of the state. The Republican figures are further confirmed by special press dispatches. The Democratic gains have been made in the lower house of the legislature, but that body will be overwhelmingly Republican and a member of the dominating party will be elected United States senator.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 7.—The Republicans claim a lead of 3000 votes on governor, with twelve counties still out. The Democrats claim a lead of less than 1000 for Harris, with sixteen counties out.

UTAH.
SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 7.—That Joseph Howell, Republican, is re-elected congressman at large from Utah by a large majority of 10,000 over O. W. Powers, Democrat, and Thomas Weir, American, is certain. Joseph E. Frick, Republican, for justice of the Supreme court, will have a smaller but equally safe lead.

The principal change from the vote at last year is the transfer of some 2000 Democratic votes in Salt Lake to the Republicans and this is generally attributed to defensive attitude of the Mormon church against the American or anti-Mormon party. The Democratic leaders charge that the change was made in obedience to the commands of President Smith and Apostle (also senator) Reed Smoot.

NEBRASKA.
LINCOLN, Nov. 7.—Returns

received at Republican state headquarters indicate the election of Sheldon, Republican, for governor by about 10,000 plurality. Chairman Stone of the state committee claims eighty-seven Republican members of the legislature, sixty-seven being a majority. This will mean the election of Norris Brown for United States senator.

COLORADO.
DENVER, Nov. 7.—Returns are incomplete, but sufficient to show the election of the entire Republican state, a Republican majority of thirty or more on joint ballot in the legislature which will elect a senator to succeed Thomas M. Patterson. Simon Guggenheim is the only avowed Republican candidate for the senate and he has had the support of the party leaders.

Republicans claim pluralities above 20,000 for Gov. R. A. Buchtel, candidate for governor, and their other nominees for state officers.

The Democrats concede the election of the Republican ticket, but claim the pluralities will be under 10,000.

WISCONSIN.
MILWAUKEE, Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns indicate the election of Governor Davidson, Republican, by at least 60,000 plurality. The Democrats gain one congressman by the defeat of Joseph W. Babcock. The legislature is overwhelmingly Republican.

NEVADA.
RENO, Nov. 7.—Almost complete returns from the larger precincts of the state show a sweeping Democratic victory. Bartlett, Democrat for congress, will defeat Smith, Republican, by 1000, and Sparks, incumbent governor, will defeat Mitchell by about the same. The legislature will be close, but a majority of the holdover senators, who will vote for United States senator two years from now, will be Republican.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.
CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 7.—Returns received last tonight from some of the missing small towns of the state indicate the election of Charles M. Floyd, the Republican candidate for governor, by a small majority. With all but eight of the 292 towns and wards of the state heard from, the figures show a majority for Floyd of forty-nine votes over all.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 7.—With seventeen towns still to be heard from, the returns from yesterday's state election indicate quite conclusively that the contest for the governorship will have to be settled in the legislature, the Republican candidate, Charles M. Floyd, having failed to secure a majority over the other two candidates. The returns from 275 of the 292 wards and towns of the state give Floyd, Republican, 39,948 for governor; Jameson, Democrat, 37,138. This is a Republican loss from four years ago of 5,104.

IDAHO.
BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 7.—Today's returns confirm the estimates made last night. That Governor Gooding, Republican candidate for re-election, has carried the state by a majority of somewhat more than 7000. The rest of the state ticket has a majority of probably 5000 more, with one exception, the candidate for secretary of state, who was cut considerably. Definite returns show the Republicans have thirteen of the twenty-one members of the state senate, and thirty-five of the fifty-one members of the house. This will give a majority of twenty-four on joint ballot.

WASHINGTON.
SEATTLE, Nov. 7.—Although the reports from the state of Washington are slow in coming in, returns from Pierce, Spokane and King counties, with those that have been received from outside counties, are sufficient to show that the Republican ticket, comprising Jones and Cushman, the Republican congressmen, have all been re-elected by heavy majorities over their Democratic opponents. Blackman, Byrne and Sherman.

The vote shows a considerable falling off in Republican majorities from two years ago, but this may be explained by the fact that, in a measure, the congressmen were then carried along on the tide wave that swept the state in favor of President Roosevelt.

KENTUCKY.
MT. STERLING, Ky., Nov. 7.—Returns received at Republican headquarters here indicate the election of J. W. Langley, Republican, to congress from the fourth district, over F. A. Hopkins, Democrat, by 700 majority.

PENNSYLVANIA.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The plurality of Stuart, Republican, for governor may reach 75,000. The other candidates on the Republican state ticket were elected by pluralities slightly lower. The United Mine Workers of America, which entered the political field for the first time in this state, will have two of its officers in congress and six of its members in the legislature.

IOWA.
DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 7.—Reports from about half the counties of the state received at political headquarters indicate that the Republicans carried the state for the entire ticket. At Democratic headquarters it was said that Porter will have a plurality of less than 5000.

MISSISSIPPI.
JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 7.—Today's advices indicate all Democrats were elected yesterday.

INDIANA.
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Latest returns show the election of five Republican and five Democratic congressmen with three districts in doubt. The legislature is Republican.

TENNESSEE.
NASHVILLE, Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns from the state indicate the election of Patterson, Democrat, for governor by 18,000 over Evans, Republican.

NEW JERSEY.
TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 7.—Revised returns show that the Democrats will have the house of assembly 31 to 29, and that the legislature will have a Republican majority on joint ballot of 7. The Democrats elected four congressmen in New Jersey, a gain of 1. While the legislature is Republican on joint ballot, Senator Colby and Assemblyman-elect Fiske, Republicans, have both announced they will not vote for the re-election of United States Senator Dryden.

MASSACHUSETTS.
BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Revision to day of the figures in yesterday's election does not affect the Republican victory, complete returns planning Guild's plurality, Republican, for governor, over Moran, Democrat, at 31,602, while Draper, Republican, defeated Brown, Independent League and Democrat, by 279. The political complexion of the congressional delegation is unchanged.

TEXAS.
DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 7.—Returns indicate that the Democratic state ticket was elected by about 20,000 majority. The combined opposition polled probably 140,000 votes. The Democrats elected all of their congressional candidates.

NORTH CAROLINA.
RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 7.—The latest returns indicate that the Democrats have made large gains in North Carolina. North Carolina will send a solid Democratic delegation to congress.

DELAWARE.
WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 7.—On joint ballot the legislature stands: Republicans, 30; Democrats 16. This assures the election of a Republican senator.

WEST VIRGINIA.
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 7.—Returns from the state are incomplete, but show the election of all five Republican congressmen and a Republican legislature by a good majority on joint ballot. The legislature elects a successor to Senator Elkins.

ARIZONA.
PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 7.—Maricopa county, with three small precincts yet to report, gives in favor of statehood 392, against it, 2963. No figures from other counties approaching completion. Some show smaller and some little larger or joint vote, but Maricopa is a good average.

SOUTH DAKOTA.
SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 7.—Returns from thirty-nine of the fifty-two counties in the state give Crawford, Republican, for governor, and the state ticket, a majority of 25,750. Republicans have elected 112 members of the legislature Democrats seventeen.

NEW MEXICO.
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 7.—Fairly complete returns from twenty-five counties give statehood a majority of 5900. This majority may be increased somewhat by later returns.

WEST VIRGINIA.
WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 7.—The complete returns from the different counties in West Virginia are coming in tonight and are increasing the size of the Republican victory. The total Republican majority for the state is about 18,000. The legislature is Republican by more than the majority in 1903, when it was fifty-seven on joint ballot.

RHODE ISLAND.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 7.—James H. Higney, Democratic candidate for governor, has a plurality of 1248 over Governor George H. Utter, Republican. The Republicans elected the other members of their ticket. The defeat of Governor Utter is attributed in part to his attacks on General Brantton, the Republican leader.

COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.
CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Complete returns from the city and county of Cook show that the Republicans have elected every candidate on their ticket, with the exception of three congressmen. For a time it was believed that Deprest and Barnett, negroes, for county commissioner and municipal judge, respectively, had been defeated, but the latest returns show that both were elected by small pluralities.

NEBRASKA CONGRESSIONAL.
OMAHA, Nov. 7.—Although at Democratic state headquarters the election of Boyd, Republican in the Fifth, is not conceded, there is elsewhere little doubt expressed that both have been elected, as well as Ballard, Republican in the First; Hinson, Republican in the Fourth; and Kinkaid, Republican in the Sixth. The election of Hinson, Democrat, in the second is conceded.

NEW YORK SECOND PLACE

Lieutenant Governor Was In Doubt at Midnight With Chanler Yet in the Lead.

HEARST'S ASSOCIATE MAY BE HUGHES' MATE

Outside of the Two Leaders, the Whole of the Demo- cratic-Independence League Ticket Appears to Have Won

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—At midnight tonight there was still doubt as to who was elected lieutenant governor. Sixteen counties had not reported the official count at that hour, but on the face of the figures at hand the result seemed to favor Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler on the Democratic-Independence League ticket. Whatever the result may be, the figures will be close, and until complete official returns shall have been made by all the counties now missing, it will be impossible to more than guess at the winner.

The total vote so far returned, including the city of Greater New York, for lieutenant governor is, Chanler, 64,284; Bruce, 59,479.

It appears that outside of the candidates for governor, and possibly lieutenant governor, the Democratic ticket is elected. In Greater New York Chanler's majority over Bruce is 134,911, and this big lead Bruce must overcome in the up-state counties.

AS VIEWED IN LONDON

Newspaper Comment on New York Election.

President Roosevelt's Inter- vention Commended and Condemned.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—All the morning papers publish long editorial articles on the result of the election in New York state. Few of them say anything of the results in other states.

With scarcely an exception, they comment on the close vote as a sign of popular discontent with the encroachments of capital. The Daily Telegraph says the Americans, while not ready to accept "Hearstism in full," are heartily sick of being robbed by trusts and corporations, and the people are prepared to go a considerable way in that direction.

Several newspapers comment on the intervention of President Roosevelt, through Secretary Root. The Standard and the Tribune consider the result a serious rebuff for the president, while the Mail says it is "an unquestionable victory" for him. The Telegraph says the president will find little cause for congratulation in the result, while the Post says he turned the scale in a critical moment in what it calls the "cause of decency."

The interview with Richard Croker also is credited with affecting the result, and the Chronicle voices the opinion of a majority of the press when it says: "Mr. Murphy had the best of the deal."

NORTH DAKOTA.
FARGO, N. D., Nov. 7.—"We concede the defeat of Governor Snodgrass by Mr. Burke, his Democratic opponent, by a plurality of about 2000," said Chairman L. R. Hanna, of the Republican state central committee, this evening. "We also concede the defeat of John Kaund, our candidate for judge of the Supreme court, by Judge Fisk, on the Democratic ticket, by 6000. We are confident that the rest of the Republican ticket has been elected." These figures are regarded as extremely conservative.

COLORADO IS SAFE.
DENVER, Nov. 7.—No extensive was the scratching that no county in Colorado had made a complete return of its vote twenty-four hours after the polls closed and one-third of the counties had made no returns whatever. Sufficient returns have been received, however, to make certain the election of the entire Republican state ticket and of six to seven of the 100 members of the legislature, insuring the election of a Republican to succeed United States Senator Patterson. On revised returns, pluralities in Denver appear to be about 10,000 and in the state 15,000 to 20,000.

C. R. & O. Directors Chosen.
CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—At the annual meeting of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad directors, held here today, all of the retiring directors were re-elected with the exception of Robert Bacon, who resigned. John F. Talmadge of New York was elected in place of Bacon.

REPRIMANDED BY THE PRESIDENT

Chief Moore of the Weather Bu- reau Is Censured for Removing Non-Union Man.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt has directed that a reprimand be administered to William L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, for his action in the case of a printer, named Cooper, in his office, who had been expelled from the typographical union for not paying his strike assessments. Moore, it is said, urged Cooper on two occasions to pay his assessments, but the latter refused, and he was expelled from the union.

Following this, Cooper was transferred to New Orleans, and he claimed that this action on the part of Moore was intended as a punishment for him for not complying with the demands of the typographical union. The matter was referred to the civil service commission, which expressed the opinion that Cooper's transfer would not be for the good of the service, as this would give the impression that it was intended as a punishment.

Cooper accordingly will be reinstated in his former position in the weather bureau in Washington, and the reprimand to Moore will, by direction of the president, be administered by the secretary of agriculture.

PRESIDENT CONFERRED WITH SAMUEL GOMPERS

Anti-Injunction Bill and Other Measures Affecting Labor Were Discussed Between Them.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The measures introduced at the last session of congress, known as the Perre anti-injunction bill, was the subject of a conference today between President Roosevelt and Samuel Gompers, and several other representatives of the American Federation of Labor. The president promised the committee to delegate four officials identified with the legal work in the government service to meet a similar number of labor representatives, with their attorney, to go over the whole matter and to present their conclusions to him.

Questions affecting the application of the eight hour law to labor on the Panama canal and its general administration in government work in the United States, together with others affecting labor matters, which the federation is anxious the president shall consider in his message to congress, were talked over.

NORTHERN OREGON HAS HEAVY RAINS AND BOILING RIVERS.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7.—Unusually heavy rains in Northern Oregon during the past few days have caused the waterways to fill rapidly, but so far but one river has gone on the rampage, the Santiam, which practically is in flood. The Southern Pacific bridge near Jefferson has been damaged and trains will be sent over the West Side road, via Corvallis, until the damage has been repaired. Railroad property in other places also has been damaged somewhat. Log booms have been run ashore by the rushing waters and hundreds of cords of wood for the Lebanon paper mills have been washed away.

NO SIGN OF LIFE ON STRANDED BARK MEANS DISASTER

RICHIBUCTO, N. B., Nov. 7.—The storm of the past week is still raging in the Northumberland Strait tonight and all efforts to get to the stranded Norwegian bark Adenoe have failed. There is no sign of life aboard and the entire crew of eleven is believed to have been swept to death by the huge breakers and the undertow, as they attempted to leave the vessel.

CONGRESSMAN ELECT KILLED FORMER FRIEND OVER PRIVATE QUARREL

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 7.—Democratic Congressman-elect Judge George K. Favrot this evening shot and killed his life-long associate and former schoolmate, Dr. H. H. Aldrich, one of the best known citizens of Baton Rouge, while hundreds of persons were near the scene of the shooting, but none knew what happened between the two men. Judge Favrot refused to talk beyond letting it be known that the matter was a private quarrel.

TORONTO CASHIER HELD TO ANSWER CHARGE OF THEFT

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 7.—On the conclusion of the first day's trial of Charles C. McGill, ex-manager of the Ontario bank, the magistrate ordered the charge of theft of $136,000 to be registered against him and bail was refused. During the day one of the clerks in the bank swore he prepared a misleading statement under the direction of McGill. Wrongful entries representing $1,400,000, it was testified, were concealed in statements to the government.

MISSOURI WENT BACK.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 7.—From nearly complete returns from all counties the Democrats have carried the state by a plurality of 7450, electing all candidates on the state ticket and twelve out of the sixteen congressmen. The Republicans elected congressmen in Kansas City and St. Louis, but lost all but one of the districts in the state, which had been swept into the Republican ranks two years ago.

SAN FRANCISCO. Nov. 7.—Railroad and business circles were stirred today by the rumor that the United Railroads had practically secured control of the California street cable railroad company.

BERLIN. Nov. 7.—An imperial edict providing for the reorganization of the government was published in the official gazette today.

MIDNIGHT FIGURES ON STATE ELECTION

Gillett's Plurality on Partial Returns Is Nearly Nine Thousand

CHAIRMAN STONE CLAIMS HIS ELECTION BY TEN THOUSAND — DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE UNWILLING TO CONCEDE IT—LOS ANGELES COUN- TY, WITH SEVEN PRECINCTS MISSING, GIVES GIL- LETT 7948 PLURALITY—OTHER COUNTIES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—At midnight returns were still very incomplete. Only 1248 precincts out of a total of 2471 in the state have been reported. These give Gillett (R.) for governor a plurality of 8976.

The figures on governor are: Gillett (R.) 81,073; Bell (D.) 72,097; Langdon (I. L.) 29,580.

Chairman Stone of the Republican state central committee tonight estimated Gillett's plurality at 10,000. The Democratic committee is not yet ready to concede Gillett's election.

SAN JOAQUIN.
STOCKTON, Nov. 7.—The complete vote of San Joaquin for governor, as shown by the semi-official returns, is as follows: Gillett, 3159; Bell, 3474; Langdon, 512.

Vote on Supreme court judges, except three precincts, from which no returns have been received, is as follows: Henshaw, 3475; Lorigan, 3465; Hatch, 3601; Murasky, 2824; Stoss, 3457; Craig, 2511.

Appellate judges—Cook, 12,674; Cooper, 10,347; Kerrigan, 13,214; Hall, 641; Dooling, 9,043; Harrison, 4,280.

Secretary of State—Curry, 15,813; Nichols, 3,601.

SAN DIEGO.
SAN DIEGO, Nov. 7.—Seventy-eight out of the ninety-eight precincts in San Diego county give Gillett 3407; Bell 2877; Lewis 829; Langdon 503.

Seventy-five precincts give for state senator, Wright, R., 3071; Elliott, Socialist, 874; Howers, L., 1125.

For congress, Smith, R., 2290; Barlow, D., 1457.

Complete vote of the 70th assembly district, comprising this city, shows that Langdon, Republican, wins over Dodson, D., by 203 plurality.

ALAMEDA.
OAKLAND, Nov. 7.—Complete returns in Alameda county from 165 out of 166 precincts give Gillett 11,186; Bell, 6667; Langdon, 7369; Lewis, 1,809; Blanchard, 620.

Associate justices—Henshaw, 13,204; Lorigan, 12,853; Stoss, 13,581; Hatch, 3,618; Murasky, 7,175; Craig, 2557.

Appellate judges—Cook, 12,674; Cooper, 10,347; Kerrigan, 13,214; Hall, 641; Dooling, 9,043; Harrison, 4,280.

Secretary of State—Curry, 15,813; Nichols, 3,601.

VENTURA COUNTY.
VENTURA, Nov. 7.—Complete returns from Ventura county on head of ticket give Gillett 1453; Bell 873; Langdon 341. For lieutenant governor, Porter 1284; Hatch 1205. For congress, Smith, R., 1430; Barlow, Dem., 1026.

SANTA BARBARA.
SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 7.—Complete returns from Santa Barbara county give Gillett 1783; Bell 1385; Langdon 399. The city of Santa Barbara, which is normally Republican by 2 to 1, was carried by Gillett over Bell by four thousand votes.

GUNBOAT PRINCETON WAS IN COLLISION WITH WOODEN BARK.
PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Nov. 7.—While the American bark James G. Smith, in ballast from San Francisco, was being towed today by two tugboats, the gunboat Princeton, United States gunboat, was lying at anchor in the open roadstead off Port Townsend. Princeton was badly damaged, her bowsprit and forward gear being completely torn out by the old wooden vessel, which was speedily unschooled. The Princeton has gone to the Bremerton navy yard for repairs. The Gnegmich continued in tow up the sound.

NAPA.
NAPA, Nov. 7.—Bell has carried this county by at least 1100 votes and McKinley, Republican, for congress, by 600 votes. Frank Bush, for assembly, has been elected by 400 majority.

STANDARD OIL GIVES EMPLOYEES MORE WAGES

Republican Success in Pennsylvania Leads the Management to See Prosperity Ahead.

FRANKLIN, Pa., Nov. 7.—The Standard Oil company today announced a voluntary increase of wages to employees in the oil and coal regions of Pennsylvania, where the percentage of increase was not stated. About 800 men will be benefited.

General Charles Miller, who made the announcement on behalf of the Oil company, said the election of the Republican ticket in Pennsylvania had inspired the management with the belief that still greater prosperity is coming and they desired their employees to share in it.

The Gans-Nelson Fight.

The Gans-Nelson fight pictures will be exhibited at the Burton Theater on Saturday, Nov. 10th, and as the local engagement is for one night and a matinee only, the house will no doubt be crowded to the doors, as the interest in the coming of the pictures is as great as it was in the fight itself and the discussion of the merits of the two fighters is as lively as it was before the September battle.

The interest is not alone confined to the fight pictures, but the goldfield mining scenes are also coming in for a big share of attention. Everybody has heard so much about this wonderful city on the desert that they are all anxious to see it, and those who have invested in mining stock are anxious to see the mine where their dividends will come from. It is expected that a large part of the audience will be made up of ladies who will take advantage of the opportunity to see the fight, of which their husbands talked so much last September.

BIG NAVAL DISPLAY AT HAMPTON ROADS

Five Hundred Million Dollars' Worth of Warships to Be at Jamestown Exposition.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 7.—In size, in port and in grandeur, the naval review which will be an constant view at the Jamestown exposition, to be held at Hampton Roads near Norfolk, Virginia, will surpass anything of the kind ever held. A high official of the navy department has estimated that at no time will there be less than $500,000,000 worth of naval ships floating on the waters of Hampton Roads.

This may seem to the lay reader a stupendous value to put on just one feature of the great celebration, but when it is remembered that nearly all warships above and including the third rate, cost $1,000,000 apiece, and even destroyers cost $750,000, with battleships and armored cruisers costing from $3,000,000 to $10,000,000, it will be seen at a glance that the estimate is not too high.

About twenty-five of the greatest nations on earth, including all the great maritime powers, have promised to send to the Jamestown exposition contingents of their naval strength. This insures the coming of the greatest naval fleet ever brought together.

England will, of course, send a mighty fleet and the other powers, not to be too greatly outdone by the greatest naval power, will also make a great showing. Submarine boats will be present in great numbers and all the latest engines of naval destruction. Aside from the purely naval features of the exposition, there will be a series of great yacht races in which every style and "size of sailing craft will contest. Cups have been offered as prizes by the king of England, the emperor of Germany, Sir Thomas Lipton and President Roosevelt, all well-known yachting enthusiasts.

King Edward's cup will go to the winner of the international championship races and the other cups will go to the winner of regattas which will last over a period of nearly two months. Several weeks will also be taken up by the motor boat carnival, which will be held off the pier of the exposition.

Besides these events, there will be great rowing contests held under the auspices of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen and the exposition. There will be canoe races and freak races, a class designed especially for the benefit of the builders of freak racing craft.

HARRIMAN IN CONTROL

Illinois Central Becomes One of His Properties.

J. T. Harrahan Was Elected President in Place of Stuyvesant Fish.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—By the election today of J. T. Harrahan as president of the Illinois Central Railroad company, to succeed Stuyvesant Fish, it is believed that E. H. Harriman has at last realized the fulfillment of his plan to control a railroad line from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean. The Illinois Central was the one link missing to complete a line of track from New York to San Francisco and Portland, Ore., from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico, and from the Gulf to the Pacific ocean.

The first important step in the direction of securing the outlet on the Atlantic seaboard of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads is believed to have been taken by Harriman several weeks ago when it was reported that one of the roads under his control had taken over control of the Baltimore and Ohio company, which was sold and Ohio company of the Baltimore and Ohio company.

Taken together, this system of Harriman railroads will united puts under one control more than 23,000 miles of track, capitalized at more than $1,700,000,000.

James T. Harrahan, vice president of the Illinois Central, was elected president of the company at a meeting of the board of directors in this city by a vote of 8 to 6, the adherents of President Stuyvesant Fish not voting. The meeting is reported to have been a stormy one. The directors who voted for Harrahan were John Jacob Astor, John W. Auchincloss, Robert W. Golet, James T. Harrahan, E. H. Harriman, Walter Lutzger, Charles A. Peabody, Cornelius Vanderbilt.

The following directors did not vote: Stuyvesant Fish, Charles M. Bunch, Dewitt Cutting, Charles S. Deane of Illinois, who is ex-officio a member of the board.

John C. Wellings, another director, was not present owing to illness.

Shortly before the meeting the directors who voted for Harrahan sent a letter to President Fish giving their reasons for refusing to vote for his reelection. The letter declared that in June last, without consulting the other members of the board of directors, Fish issued a circular to the stockholders requesting proxies for the annual election.

At the next meeting of the board, it was declared Fish, by breaking the quorum, defied a resolution for the appointment of a committee to solicit proxies.

Later, Fish and Harriman effected an agreement by which the Harriman-Kuhn-Land proxies should be given to Fish who would vote for Harriman's selection of a successor to Grinnell at the annual meeting. Henry W. DeForest refused to vote the proxies as agreed and, instead, used the proxies to elect Fish's individual nominee. Fish further wrote and caused to be published statements reflecting on his fellow directors.

BECKHAM HAS WON KENTUCKY PRIMARIES

Youngest Governor in the United States Will Also Be Youngest Member of Senate.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 7.—With but a few mountain counties to hear from, and these probably decreasing in number, Governor Beckham has almost certainly won his fight against Senator McCreary for the nomination of United States senator in yesterday's Democratic primaries. The governor's majority will be about 4,000.

Samuel W. Hager was nominated for governor in the same primary by a majority of between 12,000 and 13,000.

Although Senator McCreary carried Louisville 7,847, Governor Beckham ran so well in the county that he overcame this lead, and has in the neighborhood of 4,000 to spare. The Republicans gained two congressmen, giving them a total of our in the lower house.

John Crepps Wickliffe Beckham, governor of Kentucky, whose nomination in yesterday's primaries in succession to United States Senator McCreary is equivalent of having been elected the youngest governor in the United States. At the time of his election he was only 40 years old and is now 37.

HAWAIIAN RETURNS REPUBLICAN DELEGATE

Kalanian'ole Received a Majority. Although the Island of Hawaii Went Democratic.

HONOLULU, Nov. 7.—The election returns so far as received indicate the reelection of J. K. Kalanian'ole, Republican, as delegate to congress by an increased majority.

The territorial legislature will be largely Republican. The local Republican ticket has been defeated, with the exception of A. M. Brown, who is elected Sheriff by a majority of 10 over C. P. Inakee, a Democratic opponent.

It is probable that the Republicans will contest the result in Honolulu. The island of Hawaii went Democratic, except for delegate to Congress, Kalanian'ole, Republican, receiving a majority.

Crew May Have Perished. ST. JOHN, N. B., Nov. 7.—Fears were expressed today that the entire crew of twelve men of the Norwegian bark Alcona, wrecked Monday at Rix-brook, have lost their lives by the breaking up of the vessel. Five members of the crew are known to have been drowned while attempting to reach shore in a lifeboat.

Secretary Metcalf's Mission. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—There will be no further conference between Secretary Metcalf and the board of education of this city about the petition of the latter for setting aside a general school for children of Japanese descent. The board desires that the state law be tested in the courts and will not recede from its position.

GARFIELD IN THE CABINET

Succeeding Hitchcock as Secretary of the Interior.

Herbert Knox Smith Will Be the New Commissioner of Corporations.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Secretary of the Interior Allan Hitchcock will retire from President Roosevelt's cabinet on the 4th of next March and James R. Garfield, of Ohio, the present commissioner of corporations, will succeed him. Herbert Knox Smith, now assistant commissioner of corporations, will be appointed to Garfield's place.

These changes, and the retirement of Commissioner Richards of the general land office, on March 4th, were announced in a statement from the White House today.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The President today announced the appointment of Attorney General Moody, of Massachusetts, as Justice of the Supreme court, to succeed Justice Henry Billings, who retired some time ago.

Moody has filed the office of attorney general since July 1, 1901. Previous to that time he had served for more than two years as secretary of the navy. He had also represented his state in the Fifty-fourth, Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh Congresses. It is generally expected that Moody will retire from the department of justice the latter part of December.

The statement says regarding Hitchcock: "The secretary of the interior, Mr. Hitchcock, has informed the president that he would be unable to stay after March 4th. Mr. Hitchcock has for some time felt that the very exhaustive work he has been engaged in for over eight years in the interior department was wearing on him so as to make it impossible for him much longer to remain."

"At the president's earnest request, he consented to accept a re-appointment on March 4, 1905, at the time of the president's inauguration. But he then stated that he could not say how long he could stay, and he feels now that he must insist on being relieved after March 4th. The president urged him to accept the ambassadorship to France, but Hitchcock feels that he is entitled to absolute rest and was obliged to refuse the offer."

Smith has filled the position of assistant commissioner of corporations since August 15, 1903. He was appointed from Connecticut.

PENNSYLVANIA ROAD GIVES WAGE INCREASE TO MANY EMPLOYEES.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—The board of directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad company today declared an advance of 10 per cent in the wages of all employees receiving less than $300 a month. The increase goes into effect December 1st. The directors gave the cost of living and the present prosperity of the country as the reason for the advance. Similar action will be taken by all the companies in the Pennsylvania system east and west of Pittsburgh. About 125,000 men are affected.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A motion by Richard A. McCurdy, formerly president of the Mutual Life Insurance company, to compel the company, which is suing him to recover $3,370,341, with interest, as damages for alleged unfaithfulness and neglect, to make its complaint more definite and certain, was today denied by Justice Beahm in the Supreme court. Similar motions also were denied in the suits brought by the company against its former president and his son, Robert H. McCurdy.

SWIMMING PARTY THE LAST.

Society in Columbus Axed Over Recent Novelty in Entertaining.

Columbus stands to spring into that fame that knows no end through its society swimming party. It was reported that one of the favored guests had received a Turkish towel and a bar of soap, while another is rejoicing over a pair of bath slippers. These were suggestive presents from curious friends who didn't get bids to the "bath."

So far the young women are saying nothing except to plan and plan their bathing costumes. From all over the city yesterday the telephones were kept busy inquiring about the event and many were the suggestions offered.

One suggestion was received that the bathing suit be cut princess style of sea green material, that the nymph effect may not be lost. Ordinarily stout persons are expected to wear black to produce the slender effect, and thus probably will take advantage of that color. And those who are invited smile. Those on the outside are grieved that the invitation list was so limited.—Ohio State Journal.

OPTICAL PROGRESS

The Chinn-Beretta Optical Company to open another branch.

HANFORD GETS THE BENEFIT

In response to repeated requests from their large and growing list of customers in Hanford and vicinity, the Chinn-Beretta Optical Company has decided to establish a branch in that thriving city.

The great success of the Fresno house, which in the short space of eight months has doubled its testing facilities and its refractive and working forces, has encouraged the company to further effort to give the people of this valley the very best optical service. Service that should be skillful and perfect, honest and reliable.

The people of Hanford will be as quick as Fresno has been to perceive the immense advantages gained by getting glasses first hand, from the people who make them. Indeed this is the only way to be sure of getting proper optical service, for the method of buying glasses from people who in turn have to buy them again from some one else is full of risk and certainly behind the times.

The location of the new branch will be duly announced and in the meantime

Mr. A. E. Gribi

DANGERS FROM DISPEPSIA

Imperfect Digestion, Most Prolific Cause of Serious Disease.

Few people seem to realize the real dangers in disturbed, deficient or defective digestion.

While health reports do not give indication as a cause of death, yet it is in reality often fatal, as it weakens the stomach that one becomes readily susceptible to an attack of typhoid fever, kidney disease, nervous prostration or other serious or fatal disease.

At the first symptoms of indigestion, Mi-na stomach tablets should be used. If there is a feeling of heaviness in the stomach, distress after eating, nervousness, dizziness, nausea, headache, sleeplessness, pain in the side and limbs, specks before the eyes, or a peevish, irritable condition, with debility and weakness, begin the use of Mi-na at once.

It will build up the stomach and digestive organs so that you can eat anything at any time without fear of distress or indigestion.

A 50-cent box of Mi-na tablets will, in most cases, give prompt relief and cure, although in chronic and long-standing weakness of the stomach, two boxes or more are sometimes needed, but the San Joaquin Drug Co. guarantees Mi-na will cure in all cases, no matter how chronic or serious, or money will be refunded. You run no risk whatever in buying Mi-na.

"PEGGY FROM PARIS" TO-NIGHT

Arthur Deagon as "Reginald Hickey" in "Peggy from Paris"

"Peggy from Paris," one of the most successful musical plays ever produced in this country, will be at the Barton tonight.

"Peggy from Paris" stands forth prominently as one of the recent musical-comedy hits. The book and lyrics were written by George Ade, and the play ranks as one of the cleverest of Mr. Ade's efforts. It abounds in satire, humor and merriment. The characters are droll and amusing, and they are carried through a succession of wondrous scenes and situations. It has been said of "Peggy from Paris" that there is a "laugh in every line."

The humor, while crisp, swift and irresistible, is wholesome and without taint of coarseness. The play compels laughter by the keenness of its wit, the humor of the speeches, the amusing character portrayals and the comical complications.

The music is especially attractive. It was written by William Lorraine and its quality is guaranteed by the fact that he wrote "Edna" and "Zoumou," than which nothing more popular has ever been played by an orchestra or on piano. Added numbers have been contributed by J. A. Raynes. Indeed, "Peggy from Paris" is famed for catchy and swinging melodies. There are many musical hits.

THREE HAPPY COUPLES MATED YESTERDAY

Judge Smith Snatched Time from Election Wrecks to Join Them in Wedlock.

Although yesterday was a day of anxiety and suspense to justice of the Peace Smith, whose mind was taken up with election duties, he found time to mate three happy couples, and the six were sent off after the ceremonies amid congratulations of the friends who accompanied them.

James M. Page and Mrs. Josephine Simpson were the first to be joined. They are natives of Missouri and have been "shown" twice before. Evidently, he was thoroughly satisfied with his matrimonial ventures, as he took to himself a buxom bride who, too, had made a voyage on the matrimonial lark. The bride comes from Wyoming and is 38 years old. Her husband is ten years older.

Ira Oldenburg is a husky young blacksmith of 22 years who wooed and won pretty Lulu Graff, a girl of his own age. The parties are residents of Clovis, the groom being a native of Germany and the bride from Nebraska.

The third couple are Italians. Roscoe Botta is 37 years old, while his bride, Teresa Frigoni, is 24. Their marriage was the culmination of a long engagement, which commenced in sunny Italy years ago.

OLDEST INHABITANT DIED YESTERDAY

James W. Spencer, Aged 94, Passed Away in County Hospital.

One of the oldest residents of this section of the state passed away yesterday afternoon in James N. Spencer, who died in the county hospital in his ninety-fourth year. Death was due to senility contributed to by a bad accident the old man suffered some time ago when he fractured a leg.

As an old resident, it was indeed the oldest inhabitant of Fresno county, the deceased had undisputed distinction. Men who have lived here for twenty or thirty years remember him as an old man and a landmark on their coming. Nobody seems to know exactly how long he has lived here, but he was at least a forty-niner.

Coming from South Carolina, he settled on a ranch in the northern part of the county and afterwards moved to Sanger about forty years ago. It was a man of muscular physique and was injured to hard work all his life, carrying his labors right up to his 90th year. With the weight of years resting heavily upon him, and having no relatives in the world, the lonely old man made his home with Josh Craven on his ranch near Sanger, doing light work to pass away the time. In some manner he broke his leg a few months ago and sustained a general shock to his system. Despite his great age, however, the fracture was successfully set, but the shock proved too much for the sturdy old monogamian. He was removed to the county hospital two months ago, and lingered until yesterday, when he quietly passed away.

Mr. Spencer was a widower and had long survived all the members of his family. The funeral arrangements will be carried out when word is received from family friends. The remains in the morgue of Stephens & Bean have been visited by a number of persons who knew the old man.

LABOR CONTRACTOR SUES VINEYARDIST

Divorce Trial and Other Matters in the Superior Court Yesterday.

M. Kamikawa, the Japanese merchant, has begun suit against A. A. Sadler and the Malaga Fruit company to collect on the contract price for picking grapes on the El Capitan vineyard during the season just past. This is a balance due, it is claimed, of $407.50. Ever & Ewing are acting for the plaintiffs.

Short & Cook entered suit for divorce on behalf of Melissa G. Crouch against Daniel E. Crouch.

Edith May Stottenberg was granted a decree of divorce in Judge Austin's department of the Superior court on the ground of desertion, and was granted the right of resuming her maiden name, Edith May Reynolds. T. D. Ingersoll was the plaintiff's attorney.

F. Prescott, as administrator of the estate of Lyman Pierce, deceased, filed an answer to the suit of W. K. Washburn to quiet title to certain Fresno city lots. The answer, which was entered by Attorney L. L. Cory, is a general denial of title in the plaintiff.

Marietta L. Parkhurst has petitioned for the probate of the will of her mother, Sarah Ann Hoag, who died in 1900, leaving a small interest in some Sanger property. It is supposed to be worth less than $100, and this action is taken to clear title to the land. The estate goes to the petitioner, who is the only child of the deceased. Hearing is set for November 19th.

Mrs. Mattie Denney has demurred to the suit of Roy Denney for divorce.

H. Ramacher has demurred to the suit of Griffin & Skelley over a stock of raisins. These are the raisins that were recently delivered to the Lyman Packing company by Ramacher, at the latter had sold them, it was claimed, to the plaintiff.

Notice of appeal of Willie Helm from the sentence of life imprisonment for the murder of W. J. Hayes was filed.

Governor of Oklahoma Exonerated.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The President has approved the report of the special commission which completely exonerated Governor Frantz of charges filed against him.

TULARE WENT DEMOCRATIC

Bell's Plurality Will Exceed Eleven Hundred.

Sheriff Collins Alone Withstood the Landslide—Improvements.

VISALIA, Nov. 7.—Semi-official returns from Tulare county, with three precincts yet to hear from, give Gillett 1304, Bell 2437, Langdon 250. Bell's plurality, 1041. It is believed Bell's complete plurality will exceed 1100.

Barlow, Democratic candidate for congress, has a plurality over S. C. Smith, Republican, of 154. K. O. Miller, Democratic candidate for state senator, has a plurality over Truxton Reale, Republican, of 673. The plurality of P. W. Forbes, Democrat, for the assembly, over Austin, Republican, is 91.

With the exception of W. W. Collins, Republican, for sheriff, the entire Democratic county ticket is elected. Collins' plurality over Hart, Democrat, is 1304, and Scott, Democrat, over Huffaker, Republican, 1181.

Tout, Republican, is re-elected supervisor in district No. 4, and Martin, Democrat, in district No. 5.

It is expected that the three precincts still to hear from will slightly increase the Democratic pluralities.

The Board of Trade has leased a room in the Botsford building on Court street at present occupied by Mr. Botsford for a term of two years and with future formal possession about the 25th instant. The room will be remodeled with an exhibit room in front and meeting room in the rear. Mr. Botsford will make his home in Oakland.

R. H. Ingram, general superintendent for the Southern Pacific, appeared before the Board of Supervisors this afternoon for appointment on matters connected with a subscription asked of the railroad company for the construction of the new wings and general improvement of the court house.

The amount necessary for the same is $38,000, or thereabout. Mr. Ingram estimated that if he should ask for $10,000, the company would approve it. It was suggested that a release from all liability due to the running of trains near the court house and the noise incident thereto be given the company in consideration of such donation. No action was taken in regard to the matter.

HANFORD RESULTS WERE VERY NARROW

Republicans Won Most of the County Officers—Contests Are Possible.

HANFORD, Nov. 7.—Complete returns on governor give Gillett 90 plurality over Bell. Langdon ran badly. The Republicans have certainly elected assemblyman, sheriff, tax collector, auditor, treasurer, coroner and surveyor. The Democrats have elected superior court judge and district attorney on the face of the returns, by a plurality of six votes each.

The fights between Jacobs (R.) and Irwin (D.) for district attorney and Miller (R.) and Covert (D.) for the superior bench were very close and contests may be entered. M. B. Washburn (D.) was defeated for treasurer by a very small margin. Judge M. L. Short's vote for associate justice of the appellate court, in his own county, was very disappointing. E. O. Miller (D.) for state senator also polled a light vote.

Internal Revenue Civil Service.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The President today made an order which will bring all employees of the internal revenue service under civil service.

Illinois Central's New Chairman.
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—J. T. Harahan was today elected president of the Illinois Central railroad, succeeding Sylvester Fish.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT RHEUMATISM

The aches and pains of Rheumatism are only symptoms which may be scattered or relieved with liniments, plasters, blisters, etc., or quieted with opiates. As soon as the treatment is left off, however, or there is any exposure to dampness, or an attack of indigestion, the nagging pains, sore muscles and tender places on the flesh return, and the sufferer finds that he has merely checked the symptoms, while the real cause remains in the system. The cause of Rheumatism is a too acid condition of the blood, brought on by indigestion, chronic constipation, weak kidneys, and a general sluggish condition of the system. Waste matter collects in the system each day which nature intends shall be carried off, but when it is left because of a sluggish condition of the system it sours and forms uric and other acids. These are taken up by the blood and carried to all parts of the body to produce the pains and aches of Rheumatism. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by going down into the blood and driving out the cause and making this life stream rich, pure and healthy. When the blood has been purified and built up by S. S. S. the pains and aches pass away, the muscles become soft and elastic, and Rheumatism driven from the system. Book on Rheumatism and medical advice free.

BRANDS FROM THE BURNING

Returns are now at hand from all the precincts in Fresno county, with the exception of Belmont, Bryant, Black Mountain and Panoche. Black Mountain and Panoche are two small mountain precincts, with ten and five registered voters respectively. Bryant is the precinct of Dos Palos Colony, and has 70 registered voters. Belmont precinct, in Fresno, has 368 registered voters. The returns are in the county clerk's office, but by a blunder the unofficial returns were sealed up with the official ones, and can not be got at. The law requiring the result to be posted up outside the polls was also violated in this district.

Omitting these precincts, the results are given, in detail and in totals, on other pages.

As compared with the estimates yesterday morning, there are several Republican candidates elected who were thought to be lost or doubtful. Chandler and Drew are both elected, Chandler by only 27 votes, which may be cut down a little by the returns from Bryant. Short is thus the only one of the Republican legislative ticket, and Fresno will have two strong and experienced Republicans at Sacramento. Barstow and Hickman, yesterday thought to be doubtful, are elected. Puleston, yesterday thought to be defeated, is elected. Ashbrook comes within a few votes of defeating G. W. Smith. Leslie, for Supervisor, is defeated by a close vote in the Fourth district. Snow is definitely defeated for Superior Judge by Judge Church. The other results were all definitely known yesterday morning.

THE LEGAL RESULT.

With nearly complete returns at hand, the results of the Fresno county election are now definitely known. The county has gone for Bell, Democrat, for governor, by 585 votes. On the other hand, Williams, for state treasurer, carried the county by 1320 votes, and Needham, for congress, carried it by 1740. Republican candidates for minor state offices, in which there was no personal interest, carried the county by good majorities, showing that the county is still Republican by its normal majority.

The Republicans have elected Williams, Needham, Chandler, Drew, Austin, Barnum, Barstow, A. B. Smith, Hickman, Andrews, McKay, Puleston—12.

The Democrats have elected Cartwright, G. E. Church, Chittenden, Miles, D. S. Church, Cummings, Lindsay, Dean, Johnson, Martin, G. W. Smith, McSwain—12.

This gives the parties twelve each, or, counting Williams and Needham as local candidates, Republicans 10 and Democrats 12. But the Democrats have won most of the more important offices, and the result is, frankly, a big Democratic victory in Fresno local politics. In a year, in which general conditions were all Republican, in which California, under extraordinary stress, still remained Republican, and in which even Fresno county, on the offices showing political preferences, showed itself still Republican, the Democrats carried the majority, and these the most important of the Fresno local offices. It is distinctly and decidedly a Democratic local victory.

Bryant election has its surprise, and the one stunning surprise in this election is the evident defeat of Frank H. Short. It is, of course, a brilliant triumph for Senator-elect Cartwright, on which, if it had not involved the defeat of Short, no one would be disposed to begrudge him the congratulations he has earned. But for Fresno county to defeat Frank Short, against anybody, is beyond explanation or excuse. The people of Fresno county owed it to themselves and the state to elect Short, and they have not performed that duty. How it happened is another matter. Various petty personal enmities, such as any man of large activities has aroused, account for part of it, but not for near enough. The "corporation attorney" cry is the only rational explanation for the rest. But that cry in the face of Mr. Short's long public record, was too thin to have been believed if the people did not want to believe it. The reason they wanted to believe it, we will venture to guess, is more blind jealous resentment of success. Frank Short has obtained a position and standing in which he is independent of everybody. He needs to ask nobody's consent whether he shall be a success or a failure. His success is fixed. The only chance to "get a whack" at such a man is when he runs for office, and there was evidently much malicious glee, on the part of many, in taking that chance. Part of this glee took the more dignified form of resentment at the notion that Mr. Short had "condescended" to run for the office. This resentment would have been justified, if it were based on a fact. No man has a right to feel that it is a condescension to ask for public honor. But Mr. Short did not have this feeling, and the resentment was based on a total misapprehension. In fact, his whole defeat was a misapprehension, and a grievous and unjust public error.

For the rest, all the Republicans who ought to have been beaten were beaten, and they carried with them numerous others who might have been elected. The people voted at the primaries against the nominations of Burleigh and Timmins, and when skillful money on the chessboard of convention manipulation revealed this expressed will of the people, it did not change, but much emphasized the determination of the people nevertheless to have their way. Moore was also a source of weakness to the ticket, though he got his nomination legitimately enough, by default, and was running against a candidate whom nobody could have beaten. These candidates on the ticket greatly weakened the ticket as a whole, and therefore made individual effort against other candidates more effective. Even in the case of Short, the false report that he was largely responsible for Timmins' nomination lost him many votes. The lesson is that a ticket profits by only a small part of the strength of its strong members, and suffers from a large part of the weakness of the weak members. It is a fatal blunder for a convention to "pleat" any faction by consenting to the nomination of an impossible candidate. Better have a faction "go down the line" in resentment, than have the people go down the whole line in resentment for a small part of it.

THE STATE RESULT.

While returns are even now very incomplete, it is evident that Gillett is elected, by the grace of Langdon. The opposition has a majority of the votes, but, being divided, has lost the election.

This is, in all frankness, not an undesirable outcome. It was decidedly desirable that Gillett should be the governor. He is a man of much larger personal capacity, sounder judgment, stouter character, than either of his opponents. He will make the best governor, at a time when we need such a governor. He will also, we make no doubt, keep his pledges, and be consistent to his former character of being independent of Southern Pacific domination. For these reasons, the personal election of Gillett is a very fortunate result. But it would not be fortunate for the impression to go abroad that California enjoyed the noise the Southern Pacific political bureau made at the Santa Cruz convention. However independent Gillett personally may show himself of that influence, and we look with confidence for him to do so—nobody has pretended to defend the performances of Herrin and Ruef at the Santa Cruz convention. It is very well that the election went so as to elect Gillett without vindictive these methods. It gives California a Republican governor and a good governor, both of which are desirable, without setting back the cause of opposition to railroad domination within the party, which is very undesirable.

As to the Democratic side of it, the Democrats of California owe their defeat to Hearst, who administered that defeat for the express purpose of destroying the California Democracy. When Hearst now sets himself at the head of the party which will be called Democratic, will the California Democrats belong to it?

THE GENERAL RESULT.

Considering that this is an off year, the general result, throughout the nation, is astonishingly Republican. It must be remembered that the standard by which comparisons are made is the result of two years ago, which was a Republican victory more universal and overwhelming than any ever recorded by any party in American history. The "off year" generally shows a large reaction from even a normal victory. This year, on the contrary, there is a very slight reaction from a very abnormal victory. Not more than one state nominally Republican has gone Democratic; in only two or three are there serious Democratic gains; and in many states there are large Republican gains. Congress is Republican by a majority larger than the Republicans themselves expected. California is Republican, after the bitterest and best-backed fight made in many years against the Republican ticket. New York, the focus of all, has gone Republican, and while the result there is a victory for Hearst, in his fight against other forms of Democracy, it is also a victory for Republicanism in its fight against all forms of Democracy. The result everywhere shows that the tremendous anti-corporation wave all over the country, has become in no sense an anti-Republican wave. Roosevelt Republicanism has kept the genuine reform movement Republican, leaving only the erratic and destructive radicalism for the opposition. The whole movement is normal, healthy, Republican and progressive.

GETS IN MAD WARD THROUGH MISTAKE

Tomt Point Asks for Money He Thinks Was Stolen, and Is Thought to Be Insane.

Recovering from an attack of heart failure which nearly landed him in the morgue, and remembering nothing of what had happened, Tomt Point, an employee of the Burger Lumber company, was discharged from the county hospital yesterday after remaining in it all night, fully restored to health with stimulants. His last recollection was that he had nearly $225 in his possession. The hospital authorities knew nothing of this, as the money had been placed in the safe at police headquarters when Dr. Lamkin sent the sick man to the hospital. So when he asked for his money, and they could tell him nothing of it, he arrived at the conclusion that he had been robbed on the street while unconscious.

Point speaks little English, and tried to tell Sheriff Collins that he had been robbed of a large sum of money. In his excitement, and from the effects the stimulants given to revive his heart's action, he acted strangely, and could not explain the situation properly. The sheriff saw that he had not been drinking, and thought him demented. He confined him in the insane ward pending word from his friends. The man suffers from fits due to a weak heart, and is somewhat erratic in his actions, occasionally, although perfectly rational. At the hospital before his discharge, he told an attendant that he was Chris Ernsou, but this turned out to be the name of his brother-in-law, to whom he wanted the money sent if anything happened to him.

Point will probably be released today if the doctor decides that he has fully recovered his normal state, and the money deposited at police headquarters by Officer Coyle will be returned to him.

RAILROAD MEN VISIT FRESNO

Inspect Work on Subway and Will Enlarge Freight Facilities.

A party of Southern Pacific officials arrived in five special cars yesterday with a corps of stenographers and other clerical assistants. The party consisted of General Superintendent Ingram and Palmer, Division Superintendents Burkhalter and Scott, General Superintendent Buckley of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation company, and a couple of surveyors and engineers. Superintendents Ingram and Burkhalter went to Visalia on a special train, while the other officials left for Sacramento at about the same time.

The primary object of the visit to Fresno was the inspection of the subway work, and the planning of means for removing the congested condition in the yards. The round house is to be enlarged.

FRANK CHANCE VISITS HOME TOWN

Frank Chance, captain and manager of the Chicago Nationals, who won the baseball championship of the National league this year, and incidentally Fresno's great contribution to the baseball world, arrived here for a week's visit to his home town on Tuesday day. Chance says that he will get together another pennant winning team for next year. Frank says that he purposely avoided coming here before the close of the Pacific Coast League season because he had had enough baseball for the season. He will leave here at the end of the week for Los Angeles, where his mother and sister reside.

WEATHER.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Forecast: San Joaquin valley: Fair Thursday; light north winds.

FRESNO, Nov. 7.—The trough of low pressure noted yesterday east of the Rocky Mountains has been dissipated by the eastward extension of the high from the inter-mountain region and light rain or snow has fallen over the west Gulf coast, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota and Minnesota. Fair, cool weather prevails east of the Mississippi river, where the pressure has remained stationary during the past twenty-four hours.

An area of high pressure, with a moderate cool wave, occupies the middle Rocky mountains and the middle plateau. The disturbance over Puger Sound yesterday has now moved eastward along the Canadian border, being central over Alberta and Assiniboia, causing light rain over Oregon and Washington. On the Pacific slope, the weather is cloudy or rainy, north of California and clear elsewhere, with favorable conditions for fair weather at Fresno and vicinity Thursday.

Atell and Baker Matched.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Abe Atell, featherweight champion of the world, today affixed his signature to articles of agreement calling for a return match with Harry Baker, before the Pacific Athletic club, January 18th. Baker has already signed.

SUBMARINE DISASTERS

The world is filled with horror when death comes to mankind in some hopelessly confined space, whether beneath the surface of the water in a submarine boat or tunnel, or in a mine within the bowels of the earth. But of all these, the most nerve-racking and hopeless is the case of a submarine boat which, through some human or mechanical error, sinks to the bottom in deep water and remains there despite the frantic efforts of the doomed crew to refloat her. Such is the case of the French submarine boat Lutin, recently lost with all hands while carrying out a series of experiments in the Mediterranean. This is the second serious submarine catastrophe in the annals of the French navy, recalling the loss of the Farfadet, with fourteen men, in the summer of 1905, owing to water entering through the open conning tower. England has been even more unfortunate, with three submarine disasters, each involving a loss of life varying from four to fifteen men. In one case the boat, while submerged, was run down by a merchant steamer; in another the water entered by an open hatch, and the third was due to an explosion of gas.

Our navy has thus far escaped any serious submarine accident, owing to the foresight of the Navy Department in meeting all contingencies, and to the personal interest of the President, who, since himself going below the surface in a submarine, has issued orders promoting greater safety and efficiency in the submarine work of the navy. Our boats go out for daily practice in Narragansett Bay and adjacent waters, but it is understood that they never leave the dock until all openings in the hull have been hermetically sealed, and that while engaged on duty while under water they are always accompanied by tenders fitted with derricks and carrying divers and diving apparatus, ready to render immediate assistance in case of need.

In time of war submarines must operate on their own resources, when a spirit of daring must not be too closely restrained, and when a certain percentage of loss must be expected. But in time of peace we are wise to establish all reasonable precautions. Our only weakness would seem to lie in the small number of young officers and men of the navy who have so far qualified in handling submarine boats.—Washington Post.

THE KING'S GIFTS.

Cut Down to a More Modest Figure Because of Extravagance.

King Edward's gifts as peace-maker, statesman, sportsman, and man of the world, are well known and admired, but in the minds of the members of the royal household these talents are of little importance in comparison with his genius as an expert accountant. Despite the tremendous amount of work he is obliged to undertake in so late time to keep such a sharp eye on household expenses that no item of expenditure escapes his scrutiny very long.

His majesty was not long on the throne before the easy-going royal servants forced upon them that a king could not be a business man. King Edward went through the accounts of Buckingham palace and Windsor with a fine tooth comb. Economy after economy was introduced and enforced, with the result that the English royal households are now run with less waste and extravagance than any similar establishments in the world.

No item of expenditure is too small for the king to carefully examine. Recently in looking over his accounts he made the discovery that he was spending fully $15,000 a year on wedding presents. He immediately issued orders that his expenditures in this direction was to be considerably curtailed, and the wedding presents he now sends his friends, though of the very best quality, are much less expensive than they used to be.

The king now makes a point of seeing all the presents that are sent in his name. If they are of silver or gold he examines them carefully, to see that their design is in accordance with his desires, and their quality above cavil. If they are embellished with his initials or other device, he also carefully inspects them to see that there is no mistake.

His majesty does not intend to restrict the number of his presents, but he intends to get more value for his money, and also to make his gifts less pretentious and expensive.

He also hopes that his example may be generally followed, as the giving of wedding presents was threatening to degenerate into an ostentatious display of riches.—London Cable to N. Y. American.

To Repair the St. Francis.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Mahoney Brothers today applied to the board of public works for a permit covering all the work of reconstruction and repairing the St. Francis hotel. The cost of the work will amount to $300,000.

The People At the Game.

Sometimes people suffer horribly at football games; yet you cannot keep them away. One of my classmates could never endure this dreadfully glorious opening moment. He always turned his face away, and then kept beseeching the rest of us in a low voice to tell him what was going on, which we never did. He is fat now and presumably phlegmatic; but I haven't happened to be near him of late years.

I know another man who always goes alone and will not allow any one else to know he is at the game. He knows to sit near him if he can help it. He wears a cap and sweater and pays no attention to anything but his football, yelling with and swearing at the thing players, and sweating untill he himself is weary there seems need of it. Once upon a time he was the best football player of his department in the whole country, but that was so many years ago that they no longer call upon his services as a coach, so he sits in the grandstand and has a lonely debauch of football emotion.

Most of us, however, need some one to talk to, some one to say the inane obvious things to, such as "Ha! Third Down!" when every one knows it, and "Going to kick!" when fifty or sixty thousand other eyes can see the punter drop back for that purpose. Most especially do we need some one to point us out on the back when things go our way, some one to exchange looks with when they go the other way. There is one man in our class, supposed by some to be without emotion, who is really dangerous at football games; he strikes out so hard and wildly.

There is another man, not in our class, who goes to every game, and though we always hope to meet him, he turns up in our proximity with a regularity each other and say "of course." He is of the noisy breed; stirs up dissensions, and lets it be known to every one within four rows just how much he bet on the game and with whom; while we look the other way and pretend that he has merely assumed our colors for the occasion.

There is one advantage of being near him, however; he never hesitates to hallow "Down in front!" to men, women or children.—From "The Day of the Game," by Jesse Lynch Williams, in The Outlook for November.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Ed Draper arrived here yesterday from San Francisco on business. He is at the Grand Central.
Mrs. Harry A. Young left yesterday on a visit with her parents in Los Angeles. She expects to return the latter part of this month.
W. McDermott is back from his trip to the mountains, having arrived in time to cast his vote on Tuesday. He will return in a few days.
J. F. Rowland who is touring the southern part of the state, is spending a few days in Fresno and will leave tomorrow for Los Angeles. He lived in Fresno about six years ago.
R. C. Jay of Malaga was here yesterday, having arrived in charge of the remains of the late Mrs. Mary Fungster, sister of Thomas Hughes. He carried out the last wishes of the deceased in interring the remains in Mountain View cemetery and returned last night. Mr. Jay has just emerged from a unique campaign. He is public administrator, coroner and the only undertaker in Malaga. In his campaign he was the only candidate on the tickets for both public offices and had, accordingly, no opposition. In spite of this fact, however, he was obliged to beg cards and go through the routine of office seekers to keep his name in the minds of up-to-date voters.

COMMISSIONERS TO ACT ON FAIR'S APPOINTMENT

First Meeting for One Month Will Deal With Office of Policeman Now on Probation.
Among the matters of business which will come up before the Police and Fire Commissioners at their meeting tonight, will be the consideration of the appointment of Policeman R. E. Fair, who is still holding his original provisional appointment on the force. During the short time Fair has been connected with the department he has shown himself one of the most alert and efficient members of the force, and there is little doubt that he will receive his permanent star and club.
The commissioners have not met for one month and the city clerk has been notified by the mayor to call a meeting tonight. A full attendance is expected and a quantity of new business will probably come up, besides the handling of matters now resting in abeyance from the last meeting.

WILLING BOY WANTING WORK, GETS GOOD JOB

Eddie Hazelmeier, the 16-year-old youngster who landed in jail here at the end of his long journey from Pennsylvania on a vagrancy charge, last Sunday, was released yesterday at the request of a rancher named Penn who, among others, offered the lad work when it became known that he was willing and decent. A number of inquiries reached the sheriff's office yesterday from employers who were willing to give the boy a chance to go to work, and he was finally turned over to his new boss, delighted at having found a job at last.
The boy left his farm home in the east with very little money and made his way to this state, because he thought that he could get on better here. He had a hard trip, but would not send home for money.

THE AMERICAN COLONY.

Some Chatty Remarks of the Viceroys of Diplomatic Life in Paris.
A world, a universe, with its diversities, its changing population, its virtues and its vices, its poverty and its multimillionaires, exists within this other enormous world called Paris.
It official chief is the ambassador of the United States, but, in spite of a patriotism and a loyalty which is advertised by the little flags which women pin to their waists and men wear in their buttonholes, on their Independence Day no people are more distrustful or constrained.
Formerly, the late Ambassador, Mr. Porter, made an effort several times during each year to gather to his salon, in the Rue de Vilejust, all the members of the American colony, and received them there with good grace, but the present representative of the United States seeks the society of his compatriots very little, and his wife, Mrs. McCormick, a very distinguished person in the society of Chicago, holds herself at a distance from the simple American villagers—the Ambassadors of the United States. It seems that the salons of the embassy, on the Quai Debilly, over which flies the flag of free America, are largely opened to those who represent the Faubourg, the advances and repeated invitations of the salons, on her reception days, are not filled by the entire Gogha of France. The Ambassador of the United States at Paris learned the art of hospitality at the court—the most sophisticated in the world—the Emperors of Austria. Every one in Vienna, the entertainments at which Mrs. McCormick, then seconded by her niece, Miss Patterson, since married to a Police count, did honors with a most charming distinction and like a woman of good breeding. It was a Vienna, also, that Mr. McCormick laid aside the severe black coat in use by American Ambassadors and inaugurated a remarkable costume, which heeled over the most democratic customs of the other chanceries of the United States. His trousers made a profound sensation, a little scandal among his compatriots. At Paris, no coat—no trousers at the democratic balls of the Elysee. Eternal regrets!

However, Mr. McCormick is a man of great personal courage. He himself attaches little importance to these vanities. Look at woman! And this is not far on in Mrs. McCormick, who knows of what value to the crowds are the exterior signs of grandeur; he they simply a pair of trousers, and she is determined that her husband shall dress himself as becomes his rank. These are trifles! Yet this is what causes the trouble in the American colony!

To my Lord be honest! Starting in life as a reporter on the Chicago Tribune, a prominent paper, which belonged to one of the most prominent leaders of the Republican party, Mr. Medill, he distinguished himself there and gained the esteem of his director, whose daughter he married. His career was made. Son-in-law to the proprietor of that paper to which he wrote, he interested himself to his own advantage in the house when was soon to become his by the death of his father-in-law.

During the presidential election which ended with a triumph for McKinley, he worked energetically in Illinois, which gave an important majority to our candidate in the republican party.
The Chicago Tribune became the all-powerful journal of the West, and McCormick, to whom McKinley paid this debt, was named minister of the United States to Vienna.

Let me say quickly that McCormick, who is a learned and affable man, was shortly after his marriage sent to London as a secretary of embassy, and his short sojourn there was very much appreciated.
Very good journalist, McCormick is an ally good diplomat, and he has the intention, when he shall have finished with diplomacy, to take up his pen again, which was the first step of his fortune in this world.
The people whom McCormick leads in Paris and neighborhood are certainly the most mixed and the most curious that could be.

They comprise three great categories:
The sedentaries, that is to say, those who generally live in Paris. Among these, the most notable are Gen. and Mrs. Vimeux, Mr. and Mrs. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Dalila, Mr. and Mrs. Berney, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Liffon, Mr. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Silvers, the Marquis and Marquise of Wordworth, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner, Mr. Heil, Mr. Deixotto, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Ewen, Mr. and Mrs. Vail, Mr. Vallais, Mr.

JEALOUS WOMAN IN MAN'S APPAREL

Wife Suspected Her Husband and Tried to Catch Him, But Failed.

(Washington Post.)

Suspecting her husband's fidelity, Mrs. W. C. Walters, 48 years old, claiming to reside on Twelfth street northwest, last evening donned a suit of his clothes, hid her left hair beneath a braided-brimmed fedora, stuck a ridiculous-looking, jet-black, tube mustache on her upper lip, and when her long left hair came down, stealthily followed him through the streets.
When she saw that her husband had really gone to his lodge, as he had told her he intended doing, Mrs. Walters started home, light of heart over the discovery that her fears were groundless, but trembling in apprehension that her disguise would be penetrated. And a poor disguise it was. The man's clothing hung in folds from her spare frame; her feet were lost from sight beneath the legs of the trousers, and the big black mustache presented a weird contrast with the white skin. Small wonder that Policeman F. M. McPherson, while patrolling his beat on Ninth street northwest, stopped the woman when she attempted to pass him.

Confessed Her Masquerade.

When taken to the First precinct police station, Mrs. Walters burst into tears, and confessed to her masquerade. "I was wrong," she sobbed, "I ought to have known better, but I—I—was so jealous. And I don't care if you send me to jail for a year, as long as I know my husband was not deceiving me. I want the happiest woman in Washington tonight."

The First precinct authorities lost no time in communicating with the woman's relatives. A nephew soon arrived with more suitable apparel, and the two left the station arm-in-arm. The charge of appearing in man's clothing will not be pressed against Mrs. Walters and so far as the police are concerned, the incident is closed. What occurred in the Walters home when the unsuspecting husband returned from the lodge and heard his wife's confession, is also something in which the police profess no interest.

"Bisight" "Opifex"

If you are interested in bifocal glasses (bifocal simply means lenses adapted for both far and near vision, more particularly for people who have to have two pairs of glasses), then we would like to call your attention to two styles of bifocals, which are well worth your consideration.

THE "BISIGHT"

Is the only truly invisible bifocal lens; the only lens having no seams or cracks, and the only one made without cement. The "Bisight" was patented August, 1905, nearly five years after the first so-called invisible bifocals. It does not attempt to in any wise copy any other bifocal lens, but stands in a class all alone; the peer of any in quality and optical value.

The actual cost of making the "Bisight" is greater than that of any other bifocal lens. We can easily demonstrate to any thinking person why this is so.

THE "OPIFEX"

Is made of two different kinds of glass so skillfully combined that on the wearer's face the lines are scarcely visible.

The "Opifex" for certain eye defects is a very superior lens, and with less cement surface than other advertised bifocals.

We do not charge any competitor with being a fraud or deceiver simply because he chooses to sell a different style lens than that which we have chosen for our trade. We offer these lenses to our patrons on a basis of merit in comparison with any other bifocal lens.

We invite the critical investigation of the public, and we are willing the case shall rest on that judgment.

When will you investigate?

SOCIAL AND CLUB NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Luther William Bahney, whose marriage occurred at St. James' church last night.

Beautifully solemn was the wedding in St. James' church last night, which united in wedlock Miss Ada Hilton Ferguson, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ferguson of Clovis, and Luther William Bahney, a clever young mining man. The greatest simplicity was observed in the wedding arrangements and only a few of the bride's nearest and dearest friends witnessed the service. The bride is an exceptionally charming girl and is greatly beloved by all who have come to know her well and admired by those whose acquaintance she has. Only a year or two ago she was a debutante in society and after a few months of social gaiety the happy secret leaked out that she had already been wooed and won and she stepped into the social world. And small wonder, for she is an unusually handsome girl, with numberless charms of character which have won her wide popularity. The groom is to be counted the luckiest of men, and that he is quite deserving of his good fortune is vouchsafed by those who have known him since his recent stay in town. He is an expert mining assessor and for the past year has been in Mexico, but the good news is being told that they will not make their home so far away, but will probably settle somewhere about the bay, a fact which will cause rejoicing among their friends.

There were probably fifty friends present last night to witness the ceremony at 8 o'clock, performed by the Rev. Harvey Hanson. The church decorations were beautiful and harmonious, consisting of golden palms and masses of delicate asparagus in green and yellowish tones, which were very soft and effective, and big white fluffy chrysanthemums. The chancel was a bower of greenery with the white blossoms standing out in relief against the green. Previous to the hour set for the ceremony Mr. Northington, at the organ, gave a number of appropriate musical selections and shortly after the hour the music modulated into the inspiring strains of Lohengrin. First came the ushers, Mr. Kelly of San Francisco and Charles C. Leavitt Jr. of Copper King. They were followed by the two bridesmaids, Miss Edna Cooper and Miss Grace Shaver, in dainty frocks of poppy and small, wearing tiny wreaths of pink roses and carrying shower bouquets of pink bridesmaid roses.

Miss Beatrice Williams, the maid of honor, came next, gowning most felicitously in pale pink crepe and wearing a large white plumed picture hat. She carried pink carnations. The bride followed, walking with her father, who gave her into the groom's keeping at the altar. She was a lovely, radiant vision of a happy bride and never was her beauty so charmingly enhanced as it was by the pale blue of her wedding gown, which was an exquisite one of crepe, trimmed with rare lovely lace. While hands of the lace ornamented the skirt, while a close fitting lace girdle gave a close fitting princess effect that was vastly becoming to the bride's graceful figure. With this gown was worn a large pale blue hat trimmed with blue plumes. In her arms she carried a shower of white carnations. Advancing to the altar, the bride and her attendant were met by the groom with his best man, Mr. Percy Gehner, of San Francisco, and the clergyman. After the solemn ring service and the benediction, the bride and groom led the way from the church.

In a private dining room at the Hughes a wedding supper was served after the church services to the bridal party and a score of intimate friends. At three large tables the party was seated. Hanging above the three tables was an immense basket filled with chrysanthemums and ferns. A bride's table was adorned with quantities of big white chrysanthemums arranged in a basket in the center. A second table was in yellow chrysanthemums and a third in pink, all similarly arranged. The place cards were artistic little affairs befitting the event. For the ladies there were stately brides with dainty veils and for the gentlemen the bridal carriage with a white satin bow on the back. It was a merry supper and the bride's health and happiness and the groom's future were proposed in numberless toasts. After the supper the bride changed her bridal robes for an equal, becoming going away gown and, leaving her bridegroom, was whisked to the station and sent on their way rejoicing on the south bound train enroute to southern California, where the first days of the honeymoon will be spent.

Mrs. Frank Dass was hostess yesterday at a delightful luncheon of fifteen covers. In the center of the attractive table was a center piece of grapes in red and purple tints, arranged with autumn leaves. The place cards matched in design and bore the names of the following guests: Mrs. W. D. Trickett, Mrs. Stevens, or Dr. G. W. Tenn, Mrs. L. O. Stephens, Mrs. J. J. Tinning, Mrs. W. N. Sherman, Mrs. D. D. Allison, Mrs. Myra Webster, Mrs. W. J. McNulty, Mrs. J. C. Vaughn, Mrs. H. C. Warner, Mrs. B. C. Cory, Mrs. Phoebe McKay, Mrs. F. M. Chittenden, Mrs. Frank Roman. After luncheon the work bags were brought forth and while the nimble fingers flew there was a merry social chat.

At the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon the board of directors of the auxiliary will give its annual report to the members and friends of the auxiliary. An unusually pleasant afternoon is in store for the guests.

Mrs. W. H. Hodgkin will entertain at luncheon today at her home at the San Ricardo vineyard.

The members of the Junior Lecture club have a treat in store for them this afternoon, when Mrs. Emma Greenleaf will speak before the club on "Less Miserables and Its Maker." Mrs. Greenleaf is known as the mother of the Highland Park club and in speaking before the club a short time ago she stated the three things that clubs should strive for: to grow, to do good, and to take part in civic life, to which she added a strong plea for the eternities of life embodied as she pictured them in letters. Mrs. Greenleaf has been most successful in her lectures before Clatskanie, this particular lecture being described as "the bright literary spot of the assembly" and the master manner in which she presented the great story brought forth unbounded congratulations.

Miss Annie Harvey met with a painful and rather severe accident night before last which is likely to keep her confined to the house for some time. She was running her wheel and it slipped from under her, sending her forward over the handle bars and injuring her spine. It is hoped that her injuries will prove light.

Mrs. E. W. Halsey entertained yesterday at an especially delightful luncheon of ten covers. The table was a study in autumn leaves, so ingeniously arranged as to afford a wonderfully picturesque scene as the guests entered. A crisp autumn breeze had apparently showered the beautiful leaves all over the snowy cloth, some having caught in a big fluffy knot of red tulle in the chandelier and more clinging to the ingeniously contrived candle shades through which an enchanting ruby glow lighted up the table most effectively, shining over the sparkling cut glass vases filled with bright scarlet carnations and ferns. The place cards bore artistic color drawings in yellow pumpkins. At a dainty little table in the article living room the guests enjoyed their after dinner coffee. Seated at the table with the hostess were Mrs. Louis Egan, Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Mrs. John D. Gray, Mrs. George Noble, Mrs. G. H. Aiken, Mrs. Anna Newman, Mrs. E. R. Higgins, Mrs. Louis Gundelinger, Mrs. George Nourse.

Mrs. George L. Warburton entertained yesterday at a charming little luncheon complimentary to Mrs. Abrams and her granddaughter, Miss Florence Jacobs, of Shreveport. Miss Florence was spending the winter in Fresno and has been much feted by her friends. Chrysanthemums in dull rich tones of red and amber decorated the prettily appointed luncheon table, about which gathered, with the hostess and her guests of honor, Mrs. W. N. Ebbett, Mrs. A. D. Chubb, Mrs. A. C. Schwartz, Mrs. J. D. Stephens, Mrs. J. A. Knowlton, Mrs. Knowlton, Mrs. Winston, Miss Bonnie Knowles. Mrs. W. N. Ebbett will entertain at luncheon on Friday in the "future" honor.

Mrs. Eva Pond, of 2550 Thomas avenue, has as her guests her aunt, Mrs. P. S. Cartwright, and cousins, Mrs. Landrum and Robert Cartwright, of Kansas City. The visitors are coming to Fresno with a view to locating here.

One of the largest and most elaborate of the fall weddings took place on Tuesday night at the Sunland Presbyterian church at Clovis, when Miss Myrtle Alice McAfee became the bride of Edward Gripper Jephson. The families of both young people are prominent in the county and naturally there were a great many friends interested in the nuptials. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McAfee, old residents of Clovis, where the bride has attended school and been a general favorite wherever she has gone. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jephson and has been making his home with his parents on their Kennerlyville colony vineyard. At present he holds a position with one of the local packing companies in Fresno, where he will bring his bride. Both young people have hosts of warm friends about the county and a wide circle of relatives, all of whom were present at the wedding and reception which followed at the home of the bride's parents in Clovis.

The girl friends of the bride had made the church a bower of beauty in greenery and masses of pink and white blossoms, carrying out the wedding colors. A network of green vines formed the back ground for the flowers about the chancel rail. Pink and white chrysanthemums were used in profusion, adding forming a white border of light along the chancel rail were numbers of white candles draped in pink. At the appointed hour the wedding music sounded and the bridal party entered the church, led by two little flower girls, Maud and Edna McAfee, sisters of the bride. One little maid walked up each on the side aisles, opening the flood gates which led to the altar. They were followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Helen Huggison and Miss Lucy McAfee, walking up one aisle, and Miss Florence Huggison up the other. The bridesmaid on the arm of her brother, Arthur McAfee, she looked extremely attractive, her fair coloring blending with the softness of her wedding gown of soft, not over tulle. Her wedding veil, fastened at the crown of her head with blossoms, fell in soft folds to the hem of her gown and she carried an armful of white carnations. At the altar the bride and her attendant were met by the groom with his best man, Horace Parks, of Madera, and the officiating clergyman, Reverend Duncan Wallace. The impressive ritual knot, after which no wedding party proceeded down the central aisle and left the church to go to the bride's home, where many of the friends and relatives assembled to offer congratulations and best wishes to the newly wedded pair. Here, as at the church, the pretty color scheme was carried out in the decorations of the rooms and the supper table, where later in the evening the guests enjoyed the wedding feast.

Numbers of beautiful and useful gifts were bestowed upon the young pair, testifying to the love and esteem of their wide circle of friends. After supper the bride donned a becoming going away gown and the newly married pair left for Fresno, where their new home will be established at 240 North Main avenue. Never have two young people started out under brighter skies than Mr. and Mrs. Huggison, who have the best wishes of their friends for a happy and prosperous married life.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cobb celebrated most enjoyably their crystal wedding anniversary after fifteen years of wedded happiness. Their home on the San Joaquin river was the scene of the festivities which united all the relatives and many friends of the family, which is a large one. While the young people frolicked with games, their elders enjoyed a quiet evening of conversation. The supper was a delightful feature of the occasion when all sat down to the most sumptuous of repasts, including all the dainty necessities known to the housewife's skill. The new relatives and friends presented Mr. and Mrs. Cobb with a beautiful cut glass berry set, which was much appreciated. A number of other gifts, both useful and ornamental, were bestowed upon the host and hostess. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sherwood and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cobb and son, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Henderson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Pollard and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cobb and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Cobb and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cobb and family, Mrs. Corrick and family, Mrs. V. H. Cobb, Mrs. W. H. Van Ness and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Jones and family, Mrs. N. A. Jones and daughter, the Misses Minnie Conlhard, Lela McClellan, Emma Smith, Myrtle Barnes, Lela Walcott, Florence Lewis, Nina Walker, Florence Lester, Mamie Taylor, Marjory Cobb, Messrs. Jones, Charles Matthews, Charles Lynch, Chester Willie, Claude, Lester, Edward and Elmer Pliman, Ernest McClure, Henry Cobb, Ralph Jones, Kelly Smith, Clarence Walker, Marcus Barnes, Henry Conlhard and Lawrence and Edwin Cobb.

At the home of the bride's parents, in Enterprise colony, last night, occurred an extremely pretty home wedding in which a number of relatives and friends were interested, when Miss Ella Mae Lester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lester, became the bride of Henry Kent Lath, a successful young rancher of West Park. There was a happy gathering of the large family connection and a few close friends to witness the ceremony performed by Rev. Duncan Wallace at 8 o'clock. The rooms were very beautifully decorated for the happy event in the fairest of the fall blossoms and a profusion of greenery. In a corner of the large double parlors a bride and groom were caught with a fish net, in which were caught delicate greenery and white chrysanthemums.

The bride was attended by Miss May Reburn and Miss Mattie Barne, both who were gowning alike in pale blue crepe de chine and carried white carnations. They wore wreaths of orange blossoms in their hair. The bride, a stately, handsome young woman, never looked more attractive than in her wedding gown of beautiful white silk, which hung in graceful folds from the waist and had for bodice decoration a handsome yoke of lace. In her hair she wore a cluster of orange blossoms and carried white carnations and maiden hair fern. Congratulations were showered upon the newly wedded pair after the ceremony, when an elaborate wedding supper was served. The dining room carried out an effective color scheme of pink and green which decorated the walls and supper table. A great number of beautiful gifts of cut glass silver and china were bestowed upon the bride and groom which will add to the appointments of the pretty new home the groom has just completed on his vineyard in West Park. The consummation of the bride's family made the wedding one of great interest to her wide circle of friends, among whom she is a favorite for her many charms and accomplishments. After a few weeks' honeymoon trip to Southern California, Mr. and Mrs. Lath will be at home to their friends in their new West Park home.

The Wednesday club met yesterday for its bi-weekly reading and discussion at the home of Mrs. Charles Miller, continuing with Mrs. Miller the reading of Hamlet.

Mrs. R. H. Becker of Eldorado county is visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. V. I. Willis, and will probably remain the winter with them.

At the home of Mrs. J. C. Hoxie the members of the Leisure Tour club held a short business session. The next meeting will be with Mrs. E. D. Edwards.

ROYAL Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Healthful cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes, refined to absolute purity, is the active principle of every pound of Royal Baking Powder.

Hence it is that Royal Baking Powder renders the food remarkable both for its fine flavor and healthfulness.

No alum, no phosphate—which are the principal elements of the so-called cheap baking powders—and which are derived from bones, rock and sulphuric acid.

ELECTION RESULTS DEFINITELY KNOWN

Drew and Chandler Are Both Returned to the Assembly

Needham's Majority Greater Than Ever—On Mixed County Ticket, Democrats Capture the Chief Political Offices—Large Majorities Obtained By Most Successful Candidates—The County Will Go for Bell By Over 600, While Showing a Normal Republican Majority of 800 on a Fair Test.

Practically complete returns from Fresno county received by the Republican do not materially change the result indicated by the full report published yesterday noon, excepting removing both Drew and Chandler from the doubtful column and making their election certain. The returns presented this morning in tabulated form include everything except Belmont, Bryant, Black Mountain and Panache. The election officers in Belmont made the blunder of not making unofficial returns and the vote will not be known until the official canvass by the Board of Supervisors.

These returns show that Bell is 585 ahead of Gillett in this county and, as he was reported as running well ahead in Belmont, his plurality in this county will be between 650 and 700. The figures show a fine vote for W. R. Williams for state treasurer, and as he is running well throughout the state, his election is assured. Needham gained on his majority of 1800 two years ago and this year will have 1800 or 2000.

Cartwright leads Short for state senator by 336, and Belmont will increase this somewhat.

Both W. E. Chandler and A. M. Drew are returned to the assembly. Chandler had a hard fight with the heavy vote at Coalinga in sudden mood toward him. It was largely a drawn battle between the east side and the west side, and Chandler rolled up a majority of 310 on this side to meet the hostile ballots of the oil fields. He had votes to spare, for notwithstanding repeated assertions that Coalinga's vote was going in a mass against Chandler, he held O'Donnell's majority in the petroleum precinct down to 253, thus leaving 57 to the good. Great interest was taken in this fight and by telephonic communication both sides kept constant tab on the count. It was 1 o'clock this morning when the Coalinga count was completed. Drew in the 61st has a safe lead of 338. While this does not include Belmont, Mr. Drew ran some fifteen votes ahead in this strongly Democratic precinct, and his election is no longer in doubt. Drew ran well in the city, and more than held his own with Alexander in the country. The Superior bench will remain as at present constituted. Austin led with the second highest vote received by any man on the ticket. Snow ran Church a close enough race to make the outcome a matter of doubt until the last returns were received.

The county ticket is peculiar in that in most cases the successful candidates on either side went in by overwhelming majorities. Chittenden is sheriff by over 1800, while Miles led all candidates with a vote of 5538, defeating Moore by 2416, without including his big vote in Belmont. Cummings for assessor also leads in four figures. Lindsay is elected school superintendent by over 2000 and he is the next winner by a thousand vote.

Most successful Republicans on the county ticket ran equally desirably. Barrows led by 1000 to the good, while A. B. Smith for tax collector made a most remarkable race, winning by over 1200. Andrews beat Juby for public administrator by over 1100, while Scott McKay had over 2100 to spare.

Closer contests were those of Barstow and McCaffie for recorder. It looked as if the contest of four years ago might be renewed, but Barstow has a lead of 252, which it is not in the cards to overcome. Denver S. Church leads George Cosgrave for district attorney by 400 odd and is elected.

The Supervisory contests resulted in the complete rout of Burleigh after the hardest fight of all, his defeat by 293 votes in a single district being most decided. Martin managed to save himself in the fourth with the aid of Coalinga, which at the opening of the campaign was particularly disgruntled with Martin's treatment. The closest race was for Justice of the Third township between M. V. Ashbrook and George W. Smith and the latter just squeezes through by a bare majority. The disposition of Smith's former big majority was a severe rebuke to his harvesting of the hula crop.

Walter S. McSwain led in the race for constables, with Puleston second. Dunas, who served as constable for many years, was defeated.

The total vote follows:

Interesting Comparisons.
Some interesting facts may be gleaned from other election returns besides those given in the tables so far published. Of particular interest is the result in the judicial contests. There was, prior to the election, a feeling on the part of many that a non-partisan ticket on state judges should be selected, and this sentiment may be plainly seen in the returns. Canvassing the vote on the heads of the tickets is not taken as a fair test of party strength, because special issues are at stake in the contest for governor. This year, the vote as given in the tables so far of 4541 for Bell and 3358 for Gillett, is of course no test of party strength. As a rule, some unimportant state office, the candidates for which have no local interest, is taken as the test. A convenient office for this purpose is surveyor general, the only possible to which is that as the office is rather far down on the ticket, a lighter vote is polled than for governor. In sixty-five out of eighty precincts canvassed last evening for surveyor general, Kingsbury, R., received 4590 votes to 2924 for Latta, D., or a majority of 826. This may be taken as the normal Republican majority. Supreme Justices. In contrast with this, Henshaw and Lorgan, the Republican candidates for justice of the Supreme court, to whom there was considerable objection, received an average majority of only 417 greater than the average vote of Hatch and Murasky, the Democratic nominees. The vote in the sixty-five precincts stood: Henshaw 3021, Lorgan 2507, Hatch 3301, Murasky 3361. On the other hand, while Snow, the Republican candidate for the unsupervised term on the Supreme court was very much preferred by most of those familiar with his character, his opponent, Craig, is a man of fine reputation. Snow's majority over Craig, 287, shows nearly the same number as that of Kingsbury. Appellate Judges. An even more noticeable difference is seen in the vote for the appellate judges. The contest of presiding judge of the appellate court in the district, Carroll Cook received 3338 to 3426 for Judge Cooper, the Democratic nominee and the man who had the recommendation of the Bar Association of San Francisco. The way in which Cook's name is connected with that of Reef politics went against him, and also the fact that there was some local interest in Judge Cooper on account of his interests in this city and his relationship to Dr. J. C. Cooper of this city. The vote on the other four candidates for the two lower places on the appellate bench. Kerrigan 3723, Hall 3604, Dooling 3315 and Harrison 2738, shows that the choice of the Bar Association, Hall, R., and Dooling, D., came out second and third in the race. A fact that works against both Hall and Dooling standing high and for Kerrigan was that the names of Hall and Dooling stood opposite each other on the official ballot and numerous voters were afraid to vote for both, thinking at the last moment that they would raise the ballot to be thrown out. In spite of this, however, the vote of Kerrigan, the lowest Democrat, is only 985 less than that of Kerrigan, the highest Republican, a little more than the normal Republican majority. Not Very Gallant. Much interest has been taken in the way the vote would go for the office of a state superintendent of public instruction, on account of the fact that the Democrats named for the office, Miss Anna Williams. The result in the sixty-five precincts would seem to indicate, however, that Fresno county is not very gallant; for the vote was Hyatt, R., 3312, to Miss Williams' 3011, showing about the usual Republican majority. Township Officers. Returns as far as received regarding the election of justices of the peace and constables in the twelve county judicial districts of this county, outside of the city of Fresno, are complete in the second, fourth, fifth, ninth and thirteenth; incomplete but indicating which way the result would be in the seventh, uncontested in two,

the tenth and the eleventh, and so incomplete as to be altogether uncertain as to result in the first, sixth and eighth. In the first district lack of returns from Bryant, Mendota and Panache deprived the returns from Frobaugh and Jamison of any particular significance. These two gave like Meyers 91 for justice to 37 for C. H. Banta, and F. E. Davis a slight lead over S. J. Datcher for constable. In the second district complete returns from six precincts show that L. Colver has defeated L. S. Beall, the incumbent, for justice, receiving 272 to 250 for the latter. Charles Clifford had practically no opposition for constable. In the fourth precinct, Fowler, R., was supposed that Justice Shannon, D., and Constable Mason, R., would have no opposition, but C. C. Hudson and A. A. McIntyre came out independently against them. The vote shows, from the entire district, Shannon, 302; Hudson, 26; Mason, 540; McIntyre, 86. There was a warm contest on in the fifth, between W. R. Good, R., and Justice Tucker, D., the latter receiving 411 to 380 for Good, J. L. Campbell came out ahead in the contest for constable, getting 429 to 238 for W. M. Grimes and 102 for Oliver Ingram. Enough precincts have not been heard from in the sixth district, Coalinga, to be of any value. In three precincts, William Kerr and S. H. Porter are tied for justice, and E. L. Arnold is a little ahead of George Avalle. While all the precincts in the seventh, Sanger, have not been canvassed, those that have indicate that C. P. Wallcut, D., has been re-elected over Lina Gaudreau by 190 to 89. S. C. Burgan has so far 245 for constable to 157 for Tom Edmond. Returns from the eighth are not sufficient to warrant prediction as to the result. F. Zimmerman is contesting J. Fairweather's claim for re-election as justice. Complete returns from the ninth, Kingsburg, show that E. D. Rosendahl has been elected justice by 138 over F. W. Peckley, 81, and Adelsbach, 66. W. H. Doyle received 254 for constable over F. E. Knight, 28, and is elected. In the tenth precinct, Toll House and vicinity, F. C. Pinell for justice and E. C. Swiggart for constable had no opposition. In the eleventh district, Lake precinct, in the south part of the county, Roy Wilson received 17 votes for justice to 2 for A. K. Taylor, and is elected. J. T. Erey got 20 votes for constable to one for N. A. Blaney. In the twelfth district, the Polasky country, there was no election for district officers, no one wanting the jobs. In the thirteenth district, Latah and vicinity, A. G. Smith is re-elected justice, receiving 257 votes to 75 for N. C. Blanchard. C. F. Bridges will be constable, getting 202 to 109 for Candy and 66 for Roy Hedrick. Charles Schulz, Tom Kenny and Albert Wick are three brabakeman tourists who came to town on the Owl last night. They were met on their arrival by Officer McCall, who jailed them on vagrancy charges. Physician and Surgeon. Dr. J. L. Martin's Medical and Surgical Institute, best equipped on the coast, for the examination and treatment of the sick. Latest methods.

A RAY OF HOPE TO LOCAL BOURBONS
State Committee Claims Ball Is Elected and Wants Ballots Guarded.
The local Democrats have not yet given up the hope of Bell's election. Bell has 533 plurality so far with Belmont not yet in and watchers at the polls of that precinct say that he has received 100 plurality in that precinct. Belmont, Bryant, Black Mountain and Panache are still to be heard from and those precincts will make Bell's total plurality in Fresno county safely 700. Chairman McCrank of the Democratic central committee, received the following telegram from Watch Sox of the Democratic state central committee last night: "Bell is elected beyond doubt. Watch count, guard returns." This would indicate that the count will pull down Gillett's plurality in the south and several other counties which were formerly conceded to Gillett but which have gone for Bell, and the local Democrats sharp this hope. Mr. McCrank said last night that he had paid no attention to the telegram as he is certain that the returns are in good hands and that there has been no attempt at fraud in this county. POLICE HAVE CLUE TO SUSPECTED BURGLAR
It is believed that the police have a clue to the man who made an ineffectual attempt to break into the place of Harry Weeks on Tuolumna street on Tuesday night. Nothing has been given out at police headquarters, but a statement coming from one of the officers shows that the fellow is known by definite marks and may turn into their hands shortly if he does not make good his escape to some other place. Mr. Weeks fired after the man when he made off on detection, and it is thought that the bullet inflicted a flesh wound. POLITICAL IDEAS

$20.00 Tourist Coats $15.00
There's an extra saving of $5 on these coats if you come for one quickly. We secured some 24 coats from a maker of national repute, a maker who stands for the best that can be made. He gave us these special coats as a token of his good will; made us an unusually low price on them, and we are passing them on now to the first twenty women who want to save extra money. 50 inch coats in the popular tourist style; a beautiful collection of plaid effects to choose from; velvet or cloth collars; fancy saddle trappings; coats trimmed with fancy braids and buttons.

Long Kimonos $1.50
They are made to sell for much more than we ask. One of the striking bargains of the season. A kimono of French flannel in the pretty Persian effects, navy, garnet, or black ground; finished with folds of plain goods to match.

Men's Natural Wool Underwear 90c.
Less than $1 for wool underwear, either shirts or two you buy. These are all drawers; Vicuna or natural silk four-in-hands in the right color; silk finished; double shades and in heavy silk. Exquisite drawers; the right garment for winter use.

$1.50 Coat Shirts $1.
A plaid coat shirt, all white, fine plaits, full cut; slips on and off like a coat; best style made; more comfortable.

Men's Sox 6c.
Worth double and a little over. Black or tan, double soles and heels, elastic tops; guaranteed stainless and fast color.

FREE SKATES
The boy who purchases ten dollars worth of wearing apparel this month in this store will be given a pair of steel sidewalk skates free. We are issuing a coupon in which every sale may be punched and when it is all filled it will be redeemed for a pair of skates. The kind we give away are worth having—steel wheels, steel frames, leather heel seat, adjustable. Now then, boys, make a bee line for Redlick's and get your wearing apparel. It will pay you.

Boys' Shoes $1.45.
We have an excellent shoe at this price. Made of good calf skin upper leather; solid sole leather; mannish lasts, with the broad wide swinging shape; low school heels; sewed with silk thread, and finely finished. Sizes up to 5 1/2.

MEATS
Every day we have some pleasant price surprise for meat consumers. Every day we turn out the very finest of meats and at prices that are right in every respect. Of course the price of meat fluctuates with the season, but here we strive to always keep the prices within the most moderate bounds.

An Adler Suit
Just note the extremely stylish appearance of these garments. The picture is an exact reproduction of an L. Adler suit. If there is a local tailor that can equal the make of the suit in finish, fit or general appearance we do not know it. The collar of the coat is padded by hand; the shape of the coat is patiently worked by hand, not pressed with a hot iron. Every coat is silk lined. Every pair of trousers is cut and finished so that they will not bag at the knee. The Adler suits fit as near perfectly as clothing can be made. It isn't a hard matter to be fitted for the factory have living models to cut by; men of every size so that the average man is easily fitted. Then there are the abnormals, the long slim, the short and stout, the man who wants an extra long trouser and a short sleeve. Every possible style is here. Adler suits sell at from $20 to $35. Compare them with suits that cost from $35 to $50 and you will have the right idea of their real worth. They come from first hands to the wearer; they are scientifically built, and they are the most reasonably priced clothes, quality considered, ever shown.

New Silk Petticoats $4.98
When one can get as good a silk petticoat as this one and only pay $4.98 for it, there is no reason for going without one. They are all silk; a good heavy quality; made of a fine grade of chiffon silk; a 12-inch accordion plaited flounce. Colors, brown, blue, green, black or dark red. They are made to fit rightly; they won't sag or get out of shape; they won't crease or crack. The silk has the rustle of dead autumn leaves. It's as good a petticoat as any woman will want and it's moderately priced.
